RIOTERS BECOMING BOLDER

Horrible Atrocities Are Still Occurring in Buzeo District and Pillaging Recommended.

BUCHAREST, March 28.—The efforts of the government to suppress the revolt of the peasants have met with only partial success. The troops are now acting with increased energy, and are employing a policy of deadly efficiency. In numerous conflicts with the soldiers, but as yet there is no sign of permanent amelioration of conditions. On the contrary, the rioters appear to be becoming bolder and more determined, and to-day the situation undoubtedly is aggravated. As an indication of the apprehension existing even in the capital, the new prefect of Bucharest, as a measure of precaution, ordered all shops in the city closed. This order created the impression that the rioters were approaching Bucharest, and there was wild panic until it was learned that these rumors were groundless.

At Vlaschka, a band of peasants, called upon to disperse, refused to do so, and opened fire on the troops, whereupon the latter fired three shots at them from a field gun, killing seven men and wounding many more. According to an unofficial version of the encounter, 200 of the peasants were killed. A squadron of hussars sent to Brabova came into conflict with a band of peasants, and it is reported that fifty of the peasants were killed. There is a slight improvement in the situation at Jassy. The streets of the city are empty and the shops still shut. The peasants there apparently are overawed by the concentration of troops.

Many Peasants Arrested.
The bombardment of the three villages in the Vlaschka district, in which rioters had taken refuge, undoubtedly resulted in a very large casualty list, but the exact numbers cannot be learned. It is known, however, that several hundred peasants were arrested there. There have been sanguinary encounters in the district of Dolj, and rumor places the number killed in encounters with the troops at several hundred.

The authorities are beginning to use artillery to bombard the villages where the rioters take refuge.

The peasants committed terrible atrocities in the Buzeo district, and the troops sent thither had orders to suppress the disturbances at any cost.

It is reported that in Northern Moldavia, where the rioting was temporarily suspended, the peasants intend to recommence their pillaging during the Jewish Passover if the promises made to them by the government are not fulfilled.

Some of the measures being adopted by the authorities are most severe. Premier Sturdza to-day secured the unanimous adoption of a bill by both houses of Parliament authorizing the government, in view of the grave circumstances throughout the country, to declare a state of siege wherever this may be taken, however, only by royal decree.

MR. SHEFFIELD DIES SUDDENLY IN NEW YORK

A private telegram received last night from New York announced the death in the afternoon at his home, "The Sevilla," of Mr. N. M. Sheffield, head of the widely known advertising firm of N. M. Sheffield & Co.

Mr. Sheffield was one of the most successful men in his business, and his success was founded upon honest methods and the highest integrity. His firm represented the Times from its earliest days, and since the merger of the Dispatch with the Times, had been the paper's agent in the foreign advertising field. Mr. Sheffield was deservedly held in high esteem, and his death will be a source of sorrow to many of the leading publishers of America.

A special from New York says: Mr. Sheffield was about sixty-four years old. He was one of the pioneers among special advertising agents. It was more than twenty years ago that he branched out in this line of trade, when special advertising representation of newspapers was very rare. The company of which he was president, represented many important papers in various parts of the country. A son and daughter survive him.

JENNIE BURCH GOES TO MATTEAWANJURY DECLARED HER TO BE INSANE

Judge Ordered Her to Be Sent to Asylum for Criminal Insane.

THE GIRL POISONED BABY

Mother of Murdered Boy Kisses
Prisoner and Tells Her That She is Forgiven.

CARMEL, N. Y., March 28.—Jennie Burch goes to Matteawan. The jury which Monday had been trying the young girl for the poisoning of baby Wilbur Winslip, late this afternoon returned a verdict of "not guilty, by reason of insanity," and Justice Miller at once ordered her committed to the asylum for the criminal insane.

The verdict came to the fifteen-year-old girl as she sat alone in the courtroom, and she broke down and wept bitterly, but after she had dried her tears, Mrs. Herbert Winslip, the mother of the baby to whom Jennie gave the poisoned peach, went to her to say good-bye. In spite of her grief over the baby's death, Mrs. Winslip could not forget the girl she had reared, and tried to cheer her. She clasped the girl in her arms and kissed her, and told her that she freely forgave her.

Herbert Winslip, the father of the poisoned baby, also told Jennie that he had forgiven her, and promised that Roscoe, the older child, should visit her at Matteawan.

Dr. W. D. Granger, the alienist appointed by the State, testified to-day that at the time she poisoned the child Jennie was suffering from a mental malady which completely dulled her moral understanding. Dr. Granger did not believe Jennie could be set at liberty, but that she should be confined in some institution where there would be a chance for her to recover.

Mr. Dempsey, of counsel for the defense, in his address to the jury, contended that the defendant was insane at the time of the commission of the act. Jennie Burch had planned to commit suicide, it is said, and poisoned the child, to which she was greatly attached, because she did not want to leave it behind.

She is supposed to be the natural daughter of a wealthy New York lawyer, to the conference.

CHINAMAN CHARGED WITH FIRING REVOLVER

Yet Sing, a Chinese laundryman, whose place of business is on Seventh Street near Main, was provoked by a youngster named Sandy yesterday and got a pistol. He is said to have closed his eyes and fired the pistol in the direction of Sandy. His shot did not take effect, but it frightened a number of people in that neighborhood, and both Yet Sing and Sandy were arrested.

They will tell Justice John about it this morning.

Supreme Court of Minnesota Decides That Railroad Can Issue Stock.

THE OPINION IS UNANIMOUS

J. J. Hill Says That Decision Was Expected—Installments on Stock May Be Extended.

ST. PAUL, MINN., March 28.—The State Supreme Court to-day upheld the Great Northern Railroad Company in its contention that it had the right to issue the $50,000,000 of stock authorized by the board of directors some months ago, and which was enjoined by Attorney-General Young, who claimed that the company should first come before the State Railroad and Warehouse Commission and submit to an examination to show the necessity and the purpose of the issue. This contention of the State was upheld by Judge Hallam in the Ramsey county District Court, who ordered an injunction to issue. The Supreme Court to-day reversed that decision. The opinion of the court was unanimous.

Hill Satisfied.
NEW YORK, March 28.—"The decision of the Minnesota court was no more than we expected," said J. J. Hill, when he was informed that the Supreme Court had upheld the Great Northern stock issue.

"For fifteen years we have been doing the same thing, with never any serious opposition from the authorities of that State."

The four deferred payments or installments on new Great Northern stock will amount to $24,000,000 by April 9th next. As the payment of so large a sum at this time might create some disturbance in the money market, it is believed that stockholders who may find it inconvenient to pay the full installments will be granted an extension of time.

Baltimore Conference Orders
Special Assessment in Addition to Regular One.

DEATH OF REV. DR. BOND

Body Shocked to Learn of Demise of Widely Known Man.
Many Visitors.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
STAUNTON, VA., March 28.—The second day's session of the Baltimore Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, was well attended, there being present about three hundred delegates.

Bishop E. B. Hoos presided, and the following visitors were introduced: Rev. Dr. Mayhew, of the Virginia Home Society; Wildeman, of the American Bible Society of Maryland; Blackwell, president of Randolph-Macon College; Lear, of the Virginia Conference; Reade, of Western Virginia Conference; and Alexander, editor of the Methodist Review.

The conference heard brief addresses by Dr. Wildeman in behalf of the American Bible Society of Maryland, and Dr. W. J. Mayhew in behalf of the Children's Home Society. Dr. Mayhew said that during the six years of its existence the society had gathered in 476 needy children, orphans or outcasts, and had found homes for them. A resolution was offered and carried to the effect that the conference order a special assessment of $5,000 for church extension. In addition to the regular annual assessment, a special subscription was taken and over $1,000 raised for the immediate use of church extension.

Dr. Murray, secretary of the general board of church extension, made a brief address on the necessities of church building in the territory of the conference. Members of the conference were shocked when the secretary read a telegram announcing the death of Rev. Dr. James H. Bond, who died on Wednesday.

The following Staunton ministers were introduced to the conference: Rev. Mr. Fisher, Gorman Baptist Church; Rev. W. N. Scott and Rev. A. M. Praxler, Rev. W. C. Hutton, Rev. O. F. Gregory and Rev. A. D. R. Hancher.

Rev. John B. Steward delivered a very interesting address on superannuated ministers. The remainder of the session was devoted to reports of ministers in regard to their charges.

GRAVE CHARGE.

Charles Thomas Goes to Grand Jury, Indicted for Arson.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FLOYD, VA., March 28.—Charles Thomas was brought here to-day and lodged in jail, charged with burning the house of Robert Agie, near New Haven Church.

Thomas was sent on to the grand jury to answer an indictment at the April term, bail having been refused him.

W. P. Stump, deputy sheriff, has advertised for sale the movable property of the New York and Virginia Copper Company at Tazewell. This company prospered at that place for several years for copper, with very little success. They have spent a lot of money in buildings and machinery, and mined a large force of hands, giving employment to many who could get no work otherwise, and their loss will be felt by the people in that section.

The mountain fire which raged so fearfully on Bull Mountain in Patrick county could be seen from the high points around the village.

The Stebbins, Lawson & Spragins Company carried a stock worth over $100,000, and had about $90,000 insurance.

SECOND BIG FIRE.

Town Just Recovering from Disastrous Blaze of Year Ago.

The active and wide-awake town was just recovering from a disastrous fire, which cut a swath through its most important business section about fifteen months ago. It seems that the fire of yesterday started in a different part of the town, but, like the other one, it attacked the tobacco interest, which is South Boston's most important business. It is the second largest bright tobacco market in the country, selling by the neighborhood of fifteen million pounds per annum. Fortunately, its other great enterprises are far removed from the scene of last night's conflagration. The mammoth huggy factory of the Barbour and the cotton mills are on the opposite side of the town, and were in no great danger. The block of tobacco factories in which the fire started were of the old-fashioned build, and were mainly framed structures. Other framed structures extended from there to Main Street, and it was an easy matter, presumably, for the flames to eat their way to that busy thoroughfare, and once there the limited facilities for fighting fire owned by the town could hardly be expected to prevent a conflagration more serious and costly than was the big fire of a year and more ago.

The population of South Boston is about 4,000, and there is not a town in the South of its size that does as much business. It has several large wholesale stores and numbers of retail establishments that do a yearly business that reaches up into the thousands of dollars. It has five banks and various manufacturing establishments.
